

Dear Sir or Madam, It is bad enough that we are subjected to listening to the unwanted and obnoxious phone calls of strangers when we are in restaurants, stores, airports, etc. The thought of being trapped on a plane having to listen to someone's inane conversation when we actually might wish to spend the time in a restful or productive way is too much to bear. It is an unwarranted invasion of EVERYONE'S privacy and personal space. ("hi, dear! well, we just took off. I'll be at the gate in about three hours. could you call susie and tell her to pick me up by the luggage? i'll call again when we land. no, no, mom is fine. well you know we just had a coffee at the airport and you know how much she loves those cinnamon buns. What? WHAT? WHAT DID YOU SAY? I CAN'T HEAR YOU!!!!!!!) (Oh, hey Marty, this is John. Yea, we just took off. Listen I'll be landing in about three hours. Could you tell Linda to schedule me to meet with the new manager around 2:00. No, no, I'll take a taxi. Yea, I grabbed something in the airport. Hey, yea, I saw that. It was really something, huh? Yea. OK,OK..)

All I can say is HELP!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
